

Code of Ethics for Publication

All the staff members SND College of Pharmacy, Yeola are instructed to follow following code of ethics.

1. The manuscripts of research paper or any publication are to be checked for journal format of research papers to which you are suppose to send.
2. Check all your research article for plagiarism as stated for particular journal.
3. Whenever you are adding / coping images from other research article, take permission from the respective authors.
4. Express share of contribution to your research article whenever necessary.
5. Every author should express interest of conflict in their research articles.
6. It is advised to write acknowledgment to everybody for their contribution in research articles.

Principal

Academic Research Coordinator