The SND College of Pharmacy is proud of the fact that in addition to laying a strong academic foundation for its student body, it also works hard to help them grow as people.

better countrymen and women. For the promotion of constitutional ideals, rights, duties, and obligations of citizens, the College occasionally arranges a variety of programs, including National Unity Day, National Voters' Day, and commemoration of Constitution Day. The College plans a number of events, including a poster contest and a debate competition, to raise awareness of the national identity and symbols. Additionally, they attempt to educate their stakeholders about their Fundamental Duties and Rights.

The college makes sure that the students engage in all such activities with great enthusiasm. The college has made considerable strides forward to raise the level of awareness and among the students, proper procedures.
